

Geography
Year 9
Curriculum
Roadmap

End of Term Assessment

Sustainable development in the UK and China. Is China a global superpower?	Structure of China and UK's industry. Comparing development in China and UK	Population in China: distribution of the population, rural to urban migration and the one child policy	Comparison between UK and China's physical features
---	--	---	--

The problem of plastic in oceans and how to solve the problem	Importance of wilderness areas and the threats that they face	What is sustainable tourism – case study: Jordan. Importance of wilderness areas and the threats that they face	The problem of climate change and the impacts of it in Bangladesh	Population in the UK
--	--	--	--	-----------------------------

Comparison
China vs.
UK

Case studies of various hazards: Polar Vortex, Hurricane Katrina (USA), Typhoon Haiyan (Phillipines), Sendai Earthquake (Japan), Port-Au-Prince Earthquake (Haiti)	The man made hazard in climate change. Disaster management – Monserrat eruptim	Assessing the impact of conflict, conflict and development, history of Conflict	Case studies: blood diamonds, modern day piracy & child soldiers
---	---	--	---

Global Issues

Managing Deadly Disasters

Geography
of Crime

Definition of crime and how it links to geographical areas – Case study: London Riots

How human geography influences crime. Organised crime – case study: opium trade in Afghanistan

Designing out crime including in-depth focus on the use of CCTV

Geography
of Conflict

Conflict on a national scale – Somalia, conflict and climate change