Year 7 Welcome Evening

Dear Parents and Carers,

We are looking forward to welcoming all our Year 7 parents and guardians to All Saints Catholic College on Thursday 19th September. The purpose of the evening's is to meet with your child's teachers in an informal social setting and to meet with the families of other Year 7 parents. This event is open to parents and guardians only, and children should not attend.

Please complete the attached reply slip indicating whether you can attend the evening to help us cater for the event appropriately. This event should be attended by parents/carers only. This is a wonderful event, and something our entire community looks forward to.

Thank you in advance for your support.
